MINISTRY OF LABOUR, EMPLOYMENT AND REHABILITATION (Department of Labour and Employment) NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 11th September 1967

S.O. 3230.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 7B of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government constitutes a National Industrial Tribunal with headquarters at Calcutta and appoints Shri S. K. Sen, a retired Judge of the Calcutta High Court, as the Presiding Officer of that Tribunal.

[No. F. 25/14/67-LR-I-1.]

ORDER

New Delhi, the 11th September 1967

S.O. 3231.—Whereas the Central Government is of opinion that an industrial dispute exists between the employers in relation to the Oil and Natural Gas Commission and their workmen in respect of the matters specified in the Schedule here-to annexed and that the dispute involves questions of national importance and also is of such a nature that industrial establishments situated in more than one State are likely to be interested in, or affected by, such dispute;

And whereas the Central Government is of opinion that the dispute should be adjudicated by a National Tribunal;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section 1(A) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) the Central Government hereby refers the said dispute to the National Tribunal constituted by the notification tion of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour, Employment and Rehabilitation (Department of Labour and Employment) No. S.O. 3230, dated the 11th September, 1967 for adjudication.
